

The production of Monday night Football, on Nov 15, 2004 goes against the moral fiber of this great nation. It is a sad day when a person can not sit down and enjoy a relaxing night without the filth of hollywood. Do you not realize that this helps break the trust of American people in "one Nation under God". If the broadcasting society can not clean up their programs and their advertisement then I must stop supporting this institute and its sponsors.